

Year 5 Home learning

Week 26

To design a poster about your recent trip to London. Think about where you went, write facts and use the tickets and maps that you have been given. Try to present your ideas on A3 size paper.

Think about our forthcoming topic of Oceans, find out ten interesting facts about them and three boring ones (what is the difference between them).

Continue to read and practice your times tables over the holidays.