

NOTE to PARENTs and CHILDREN!
SATs REVISION!!

To help with SATs revision, do the following PLUS the WORD PROBLEMs booklet we have given you.

Also, use satspapers.org to find previous sats papers for English, SpaG, maths and reading. Most of the papers from 2016, 2017 and 2019 we have already done but anything before 2016 is also fine to do.

Any problems? Make a note of them and tell us when back in class....OR...for parents who want to help, come in any day after school and we can see you about them.

REMEMBER!! Do the Lesson AND the homework please.

Spag:

1. Circle the word which uses the subjunctive...

If I were/was you, I'd accept the invitation.

I suggested that he faces/face up to the bully.

It is vital that she attend/attends the meeting.

I wish I was/were able to come too.

I suggested that he take/takes a raincoat with him.

I demand that they are/be counted again.

2. Add one suitable word to these suffixes (e.g. funny+est=funniest) able ible al ial ed en er er est ful ion ion

3. Decide what is the best way to learn these spellings and learn them for checking next week...

especially exaggerate excellent existence explanation familiar foreign forty frequently government

Reading! English Reading SATs Booster mini-tests: Do Section C: Test 1 and 2 please. As you know, time is limited in the reading SATs so you are practising getting it done quickly but accurately. REMEMBER! They should not take long!

DON'T FORGET THIS!! Private reading is one of the best ways to improve reading...and therefore, your SATs scores!
